Dr. K. S. Ratnaker of Global Medical Education and Research Center, was the chief guest, who talked very eloquently about the Values in ones personal and professional life and also related it to the values of Rotary.

Speaker Meet on 15th July 2006

Chief Guest Mr. Michel Sohel addressed the gathering on the use of the internet for increasing our businesses. Thus, helping Rotarians not only to be updated but open further avenues for them. Apart from announcements by the president and secretary, a minute's silence was observed for the Mumbai Train's Blast Victims.

Speaker Meet on 22nd July 2006

Speaker for the day, Rtn. T V Balan addresses the gathering on RYLA. He emphasized the need to inculcate and bring out hidden talent in the youth.

Cricket Fellow Ship meet on 23rd July 2006

An exciting Cricket Fellowship match was Organized between RC Ameerpet and RC Secunderabad Sunrise at RRC Grounds, which was comfortably won by RC Secunderabad Sunrise.

Community Service on 23rd July 2006

Distribution of Two Pairs of Clothes each to all members of the Anadha Vidhyarthi Griha Orphanage, on 23rd July 2006.

Rotarians Rajesh Pamnani, Mudit, Jitender Agarwal, Amarnath, Ravindranath and Ramayya visited the above Orphanage for the donation. All the 39 beneficiaries are students studying intermediate and degree classes. Their complete expenditure for shelter, food, transport and pocket expenses are also borne by organization. Actually the inmates, with out any servants, do the entire work of collection of donations, banking, and managing funds, cooking food and house keeping.

President Rtn. Rajesh voluntarily offered to sponsor one candidate for giving training as well as orientation for absorbing him in a suitable trade. It is appropriate to mention that Mr.Amarnath who has introduced us to this organisation and was associated with them for a very long duration and that he deserves credit for the success of this charitable act from Rotary Club of Secunderabad Sunrise. The total expenditure of Rs.9000/- for this donation was shared between Rtn. Amarnath, Rtn. Rajesh and Rtn.Ramayya.

Vocational Visit to Candy Factory on 30th July 2006

Rotarians and their families (totaling 62 members) visited SAMPRE NUTRITION Candy Factory in two batches and saw the manufacture of Toffees and Chocolates in the clean and pristine surroundings in the factory along with a professional guide. It was an eye-opener for all the children to view the actual making of their favorite chocolates and to be treated with helpful takeaways by the management of the unit.

Fellowship on 30th July 2006

A very sumptuous fellowship lunch, which was hosted by Rtn. Vijay Rathi and Rtn. Srikanth Rathi, at very calm, serene and beautiful surroundings of a private farmhouse of one of the mutual friend of the hosts.

The farmhouse had swings, seesaw and other games for the annets to enjoy apart from the lovely greenery compiling of fruits, vegetables, etc. All the members and their families were treated to some very tasty rajsthani delicacies. All in all it seemed a perfect place where a bonding was extended between all the Rotarians present with each of their families.
