Promote peace through Rotary

Rotary Peace Centers have trained more than 1,800 Rotary Peace Fellows since 2002. In June, Rotary announced its next peace center, to be located at Symbiosis International University in Pune, Maharashtra, India. The center will offer a one-year professional development certificate program to train peace and development professionals from across Asia in peace studies, conflict transformation, and sustainable development. For International Peace Day, 21 September, support Rotary's peace efforts and the peace centers in any of these ways:

- Designate a district Rotary Peace Fellowship subcommittee chair for 2025-26 to recruit and mentor peace and development candidates from local communities to apply for Rotary Peace Fellowships.
- Become a Global Peacebuilder District by contributing US$25,000 in District Designated Funds (DDF) or district cash this Rotary year to support the Rotary Peace Centers or the area of focus in peacebuilding and conflict prevention.

- POLIO

Are you ready for World Polio Day?

World Polio Day, 24 October, is fast approaching. If your club isn't already planning its World Polio Day event, now is the time to begin. Visit Rotary's Brand Center for End Polio Now resources such as graphics, videos, photos, public relations templates, and more. Additional materials will be added throughout September and October.

After you've planned an event, don't forget to register it. New this year: District- and zone-level events can also be registered, not just club events. Let's show the world that Rotary's commitment to polio eradication is stronger than ever!

Watch the videos on the Our Causes pages or download them from the Brand Center, the Rotary Peace Centers or the area of focus in peacebuilding and conflict prevention.

GRANTS

Programs of Scale winner builds peace in Colombia

Each year, The Rotary Foundation selects one large-scale, evidence-based, successful project to receive a Programs of Scale award. The 2025 grant recipient is Pathways to Peace and Prosperity in Colombia. This Rotary-led initiative will establish Positive Peace hubs in four urban and rural communities. The hubs will strengthen people's capacity to resolve conflicts while addressing social exclusion, food insecurity, and poverty caused by prolonged violence and armed conflict.

Foundation Trustees also endorsed two finalists: Improving Maternal and Infant Care in Uganda and Mental Health Support for Youth in Florida (United States). The Rotary members who lead these programs are committed to expanding them through global grants. If your members want to learn more about these programs or support them financially, write to programsofscale@rotary.org.

September in Rotary is Basic Education and Literacy Month, a time to renew our commitment to knowledge as the foundation for opportunity. Around the world, clubs are finding creative ways to ensure every child has access to learning, and every community has the resources to grow stronger.

Closer to home, our clubs have embraced this spirit wholeheartedly. This month, we distributed schoolbooks to three schools—an act small in scale, but immense in impact, opening pages of hope for young minds. We also donated a fully equipped ambulance, extending Rotary's reach to those who need urgent care. And at a government hospital, we inaugurated new medical equipment, a milestone that will strengthen public health services for countless families. These projects are reminders that education and healthcare together form the backbone of human dignity.

As I reflect on these efforts, I also look ahead. In October, RCSS members will gather for a week-long fellowship overseas in Vietnam. This journey is not just about travel, but about building bonds, exchanging cultures, and bringing back fresh ideas for service. Fellowship fuels our spirit; it keeps us connected to one another so that service remains joyful and sustainable.

Rotary International President Francesco Arezzo's words—"There is always room for one more at our table"—continue to echo as our guiding light. Whether it's a child receiving a textbook, a patient transported in an ambulance, or a family benefitting from advanced medical care, Rotary is about making space for one more life to be touched.

September reminds us that service is not confined to grand gestures—it lives in every book we hand over, every life we safeguard, every bond we nurture. Together, we continue to grow as a family of service, ever-ready, ever-welcoming.

The new age parent.
Can't tolerate the discomfort of pregnancy.
Then cannot bear the difficulty of tending care required for the newborn.
After which can't manage to do the requisite tasks for the child's upbringing.
Outsourcing parenting is a thing. Alas, a tragic course of the recent past.

As the world has 'advanced', humans seem to have regressed, at least in our part of the world.

To give 'light' one ought to 'reflect'. And the meaning I give to 'reflection' is to show or express.
I 'endure' by undergoing.
My 'burning' inputs can power a way of life.

Parenting is about giving light.
It's about sacrifice, struggle, commitment, guidance.

When we subcontract, we have little influence.
It's time to 'lay-off' and discharge our 'duties'.
Else, it's better not to journey down the road to a prententious family!
