Cricket fellowship on 1st and 2nd March 2008

Rotary Cricket Fellowship was organized by Rtn. Sarathy, District Chair IFCR on 1st and 2nd March 2008 at Hyderabad with District 3020. Rotarian Cricketers from 3020 from Vijayawada came to Hyderabad and played two 20-20 matches. Since there was very good response from the cricketing Rotarians of Dist 3150, two balanced teams were fielded, namely 3150 Blues (led by Rtn. Jagdeep Saini) and 3150 Reds (led by Rtn. Vishal Srivastav) to play on 01 Mar and 02 Mar 08 respectively against Dist 3020.

An exhilarating 20/20 game was played between 3150 Blues and the visitors under Flood lights on the evening of 01 March 08 in the lush green (although relatively small) cricket field at Sarojini Cricket Academy (VST) grounds near RTC Kala Bhavan (Bagh Lingampally). 3150 Blues emerged victors with creditable individual performances from Rtns. Sandeep / Jagdeep / Pankaj / Venugopal / Sreedhar Raju of 3150 and Rtns. Arun / Sreenivas / Penchalliah of 3020.

The game was followed by a wonderful fellowship Dinner/ Cocktails when the Video Clippings / Stills of 5th World Rotary Cricket Festival held at Srilanka in Aug 07 (in which RI DIST 3150 took part) was presented by Rtn. Sarathy with active participation of all the Rotarians of 3150 (who took part in the same at Srilanka) sharing their wonderful and memorable experiences of this festival.

The second game (30/30) was played between 3150 Reds and Dist 3020 teams on the next day (02 Mar 08) as a Day match at the sprawling Hyderabad Water Works Grounds, Amberpet from 0930 hrs onwards. Dist 3020 team made the series score one all by winning this game.

DG DR. Vijendra Rao of RI Dist 3150, kindly made it convenient to be present during the last one hour of the game to encourage the Cricketing Rotarians and distributed mementos to the Visiting team from VZA 3020.
